

CROSS LAKES EXPERIENCE 2019

On the Trail of Beatrix Potter

Discover the western shore of Windermere by bus and boat

THE ENGLISH LAKE DISTRICT
WORLD HERITAGE SITE

Discover many of the places which inspired Beatrix Potter and her special tales, aboard the Cross Lakes Experience.

Beatrix Potter spent many happy childhood holidays in the Lake District before making it her home in 1905. By 1930 she had bought over 4000 acres of farmland with the money she had made from her "little white books". When she died in 1943, she bequeathed her land to the National Trust so that it should remain undeveloped and unspoilt forever.

Hop on a boat at Bowness Pier and cruise across Lake Windermere, where the Mountain Goat mini-bus awaits you. Climb up to Hill Top and the Tower Bank Arms pub to get a taste of what Beatrix's life here was like.

Head on to characterful Hawkshead where you can explore more and step inside her tales at the Beatrix Potter Gallery.

Beatrix Potter spent her sixteenth birthday at Wray Castle, on the west shore of Windermere. Today you'll find fun for all the family indoors and out, as well as a new café, serving fresh food, drinks and snacks.

Return back along the shore of Windermere on the pretty lakeside path and to finish off your day in style venture up to the colourful Claife Viewing Station with endless lake views. Reward yourself with a slice of freshly made cake and award winning coffee before getting the boat back across the lake.

For all of this you only need to buy one ticket, available from the Windermere Lake Cruises ticket offices at Bowness Pier.

Please note: Entry to attractions is not included in the ticket price.

Hill Top

Bought by Beatrix Potter in 1905 and her house for over 30 years, she based the illustrations in some of her 'little white books' here.
